BUFFALO REGIMENT CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

One of America's oldest and most colorful Infantry Regiments today celebrates its 141st birthday. The 17th Infantry "Buffalo" Regiment, activated during the War of 1812, is prominent throughout American history. Its colors have flown at Gettysburg and Chancellorsville, O'Fallons Creek and Powder River, El Caney and Santi-

CHUP'A-RI

From August 8th through August 30th, 8th 1951, the 17th Infantry, with elements of the Ethiopian Expeditionary

Force in Korea attached, conducted extensive patroling to determine the location and strength of enomy forces in the area below the Kumsong River. August 30, the battalions moved to their assembly area, and at 11 o'clock a.m., shrouded in a blanket of fog, the regiment began one of the most ferocious assaults in its history.

Chup'a -ri The Battle of from August 31 through lasted September 4th. During the five day period the Buffaloes counted for the incredible toll of 3,284 known enemy casualties. The Buffaloes assualted a series of bare pinnacles which were ribboned with commanding bunkers and trenches that had to be dug with beyonet and flams action
